ALAMO HEIGHTS, Alamo Heights, TX

This amazing contemporary home is on the market for the first time and it's like nothing else in Alamo Heights. In 1998, the owners collaborated with Architect Joe Carroll Williams (AIA from Houston) and Builder Cosmo Guido to bring their vision to life. The result is a soaring, light-filled "art gallery" style home that brings the outdoors in, displays art in a magnificent way, and captures the feeling of being in the sky from wherever you are standing. Features include: an elevator, polished black cement floors, abundance of natural light, 2 second floor patios, front and back courtyards with gated enclosure for total privacy, 2 car attached garage, fireplace, office, and separate dining. The urban location is a short walk to some of the best restaurants and shopping in Alamo Heights.

Built in 1998
