KING WILLIAM, San Antonio, TX

Excellent opportunity to get a fantastic deal in King William! Investors and Renovators, if you have a vision, this house is for you! This 120-year-old home is rich in history and potential. It's been partially renovated but still needs a lot of work. Built in 1905 in the historic Acequia Madre neighborhood of King William, this home is loaded with charm and sophistication. From the quaint front porch to the refurbished, modern kitchen - this home has so much to offer. With two primary ensuites, one downstairs and one upstairs, and two secondary rooms upstairs, there are plenty of options for a home office or comfortable quarters for guests. In the backyard, what was the original barn has been turned into two potential rental possibilities for passive income. Located just one block away from cafes, restaurants and shops - and only two blocks away from the San Antonio River, this is the very best of downtown living!

Built in 1905
