Farm Ranch on 48.33 Acres

N/A, Seguin, TX

Endless possibilities await on this 50-acre property just north of Seguin's charming downtown. Conveniently located off Highway 123, the land offers wide-open space, agricultural potential, and a touch of rustic charm-making it an ideal investment for those seeking country living with city convenience. A small farmhouse sits on the property, providing a cozy base for weekends away or a starting point for a larger vision. The accompanying barn adds immediate functionality for storage, livestock, or hobby agriculture. Rolling pastures and open land offer room to expand, whether for cattle, horses, crops, or simply enjoying the peace of the Texas countryside. For developers and investors, the tract's size and prime location make it a rare opportunity for new home construction or future community growth. With Seguin expanding rapidly and nearby access to San Antonio and New Braunfels, this property is ideally positioned for residential development or long-term investment. Minutes from downtown Seguin's dining, shopping, and entertainment, the acreage combines rural tranquility with unbeatable convenience. Whether you're seeking a working farm, private homestead, or land to develop, this 50-acre tract delivers the canvas for your Hill Country vision.
