The sloping yard leads directly to the river front with gorgeous cypress trees and views. The interior has been completely remodeled while keeping the historic flare with the wood floors, lighting and architectural features. Enjoy high ceilings, granite countertops, a large laundry room and plenty of storage! This home was originally located in the countryside & was then moved to its present location and repositioned with the front door and porch facing the river so the owners would be able to enjoy the river front view while relaxing on the porches.
