KING WILLIAM, San Antonio, TX

Located in the heart of San Antonio's treasured King William Historic District, 545 Wickes is a beautifully restored 1915 Craftsman cottage that blends classic charm with thoughtful, modern updates. Just steps from the Riverwalk, this home offers the perfect balance of history, culture, and urban convenience. From the curb, you'll notice its timeless lines, freshly painted exterior, and the gleam of a new standing seam metal roof. Inside, the warmth of the home welcomes you immediately - high ceilings, original architectural details, and a layout that feels both intimate and airy. The kitchen is a showstopper! A striking red SMEG Portofino gas range anchors the space, paired with a paneled Bosch dishwasher that blends seamlessly into custom cabinetry. Whether you're a home chef or a collector of beautiful spaces, this kitchen delivers. Both bedrooms are generously sized, and the two full baths have been updated with a respect for the home's period character. Behind the scenes, the work has already been done: a newer high-efficiency HVAC heat pump system, updated electrical and plumbing, and recent foundation leveling provide peace of mind. Out back, you'll find a one-car garage and a gated parking pad with a motorized entry-rare perks in a neighborhood where every square foot counts. 545 Wickes is a rare opportunity to own a piece of San Antonio history-updated for today, but with its soul perfectly intact.

NOTE: Be sure to also explore 539 Wickes next door - a sister Craftsman home also available for sale. Together, they present a unique opportunity in one of the city's most storied neighborhoods. ALSO: This property has five years remaining on a transferable historical tax credit!
